

Apply for the AFS Genetics Section Graduate Award in Memory of James E. Wright

The Genetics Section of the American Fisheries Society is pleased to announce the James E. Wright Graduate Award. This award is presented annually by the Genetics Section at the AFS Annual Meeting and is intended to recognize excellence in graduate-level work in fisheries genetics. The Section anticipates awarding two awards for $500 to assist graduate students with travel to attend the AFS Annual Meeting in Reno, Nevada.

Eligibility:

The applicant must be a full or affiliate member of the Genetics Section at the time of application. Students are eligible to win the award once per graduate degree program. For example, a student who received the award as a Masters student is eligible to win again as a PhD student, but a PhD student who wins the award once is not eligible to win in future years.

Selection Criteria:

1. Potential for success in research in fisheries genetics (60%)
2. Anticipated contribution to upcoming annual meeting, e.g. paper, poster, or other contribution (20%)
3. Service to the Society, Sections, or Chapters (10%)
4. Demonstrated need for travel assistance (10%)

Application Procedure:

Application package should include:

- a. A brief curriculum vitae including anticipated degree, date of completion, and career goals
- b. A statement of the thesis or dissertation and abstract of progress to date
- c. The names and contact information for two references familiar with the applicant's background and abilities
- d. A statement of previous service to the Society, Sections, or Chapters, and need for travel assistance
- e. A statement addressing anticipated contribution to the upcoming AFS Annual Meeting

Deadline for application:

20 June, 2019
