

8th International Symposium on Aquatic Animal Health

September 2-6, 2018 - Charlottetown, Prince Edward Island, Canada

Off – Site Aboriginal Culture Event and PEI Social

You are invited by the 8th ISA AH Local Organizing Partners, in conjunction with the Mi'kmaq Confederacy of Prince Edward Island to join us at Skmaqñ-Port-la-Joye-Fort Amherst National Historic Site for a celebration of Aboriginal History. This cultural event will be hosted by Mi'kmaq author, playwright and storyteller Julie Pellissier-Lush. The event will also showcase a traditional Mi'kmaq drum group and jingle dress dancers. Highlights will include excerpts from Mi'kmaq Legends, an award winning theatrical presentation and the Membertou chant that dates back to 1610.

Following the Aboriginal Cultural Experience our guest will be invited to an evening buffet style meal which will highlight traditional Mi'kmaq food preparations and local entertainment by one of Prince Edward Islands traditional ensembles the “ Rubber Boot Band “.

Tickets for the “ Off Site Event “ can be purchase on the ISA AH website Registration Page in advance for $ 45 Canadian. The event will take place on Monday evening September 3rd. Tickets include bus transportation to and from the event, with buses leaving and returning to the PEI Convention Center.

Plan now to attend this exciting evening under the stars at one of PEI’s national parks, situated just across Charlottetown Harbor.

Hosted by

American Fisheries Society
Fish Health Section

UNIVERSITY of Prince Edward ISLAND

PRINCE EDWARD ISLAND
 BioAlliance

Fish Health Section – American Fisheries Society, 425 Barlow Place, Bethesda Maryland. USA 20814
Phone: (301) 897-8616 Fax: (301) 897-8096 Email: jsewell@fisheries.org