

Airport and Shuttle Information for 2019 SDAFS Meeting in Galveston

Attendees arriving by plane will fly into Houston. Houston has two airports: George Bush Intercontinental and Hobby. Bush Intercontinental is on the northside of Houston and is about 70 miles from Galveston. Driving time is around 1:30 hours. Hobby is on the southeast side of Houston and is about 41 miles away. Driving time from there is about 45 minutes. Please note Houston traffic can affect these times. Hobby is serviced by four airlines – American, Delta, Southwest, and JetBlue.

Transportation to/from the Airports
