1:00 p.m. Technical papers
3:00 p.m. Adjourn

Lodging is available at the 4-H Center at $15 per day with meals included. There is a one time linen charge of $1.50. Accommodations are in cottages with 4 or 5 bunks. Separate meals will be available for those not requiring lodging.

There is still time to be included on the program. Paper titles and abstracts should be submitted to Jim Davis right away. Contact him at 400 Timber, College Station, Texas, 77028, or call AC 713-845-7471.

The Awards Committee is accepting nominations for Texas fishery worker of the year. To qualify an individual must be a Texas Chapter member and have made exceptional input to fisheries field this year. Those proposing nominees should provide the following data: nominee's name, nominator's name, current position of nominee, nominee's address, basis for nomination, synopsis of nominee's employment, education, and achievements in fisheries. This information should be sent to Awards Committee, Chairman Joe Lock, P. O. Box 38, Overton, TX 75684.

Note our change of address. The Texas Parks and Wildlife Department has moved to its new headquarters building in Southeast Austin. We are west of Bergstrom Air Force Base, and the parking situation is considerably better than our old location in the Capitol complex. Come see us.
