During the upcoming year we plan to continue many worthwhile activities, i.e., publication of Proceedings of the Annual Meeting, Extension of Fisheries Directory and publication of the pond management booklet. Additionally, improvements in some activities will be explored, as well as involvement in new projects. The quarterly newsletter will be the vehicle for requesting your participation. When comments are solicited, please respond quickly.

Charles Inman, immediate past president, will represent the Texas Chapter at the "Southeastern" in Tulsa, Oklahoma, October 18-21, 1981.

Award's Committee Report: An unfortunate situation, for which committee chairman Roger McCabe is deeply apologetic, occurred at the chapter meeting. Due to an oversight, a non-member was nominated and selected for an award which is limited to members only. In order to comply with prescribed guidelines, another nominee was selected for this award. Steve Smith of the Texas Utilities Generating Company has been selected as the recipient of the Fisheries Management Award. Congratulations Steve!

Hydrolab-Jim Flynn
R. R. Reeves Enterprises

The goal for 1981-82 is to obtain $750.00 in contributions. We have recieved a list of possible contributors from the membership committee. Additional names from the members will be greatly appreciated. Please send to: Allen Forshage, Rt. 10, Box 1043, Tyler, Texas 75707.

As promised we are soliciting your views on activities for the coming year. Please let me know your opinions of:

- ~~1. Using two days for our next annual meeting? The meeting could begin Friday noon with the social Friday evening, and the meeting could adjourn Saturday noon. Some restlessness during the last part of the annual meeting was noted and this might help.~~
2. Establishment of a resolutions committee? The bylaws and standing rules of the American Fisheries Society and our chapter approve the establishment of resolutions committees. A committee would be responsible for consulting pp. 328 and 329 of "A Century of Fisheries in North America" which defines and describes the nature of resolutions and formats, watching and recording important issues and problems that arise on the local level, compiling and preparing final drafts for presentation at the annual meetings. Appropriate resolutions would be accompanied by a recommendation for further support from the Division and/or the Parent Society, if desired. The definition of a resolution in "A Century of Fisheries of North America" is 'a motion presented in writing because it is especially important or because the subject matter is complicated' ... 'to call the attention of the members of the Society to important matters which require action' ... and to 'place the views of the Society on record on matters of concern'.

The executive committee will discuss these two subjects so let me know what you think, by December please!

And now for membership! I count 63 full 1981 members who have not paid their 1982 dues. If you find a red ✓ beside your name on the mailing label, you are in our records as having paid 1982 dues. If not, you may send the convenient, attached application along with your check. Also please circulate this newsletter among your co-workers and/or students and encourage those who haven't joined to do so.
